Fandangle Plans Continue

Last minute preparations for Fandangle are being discussed by Robert Nail, seated, Alice Reynolds and Melinda Hardin, seated. All three are involved in the musical production which begins in Palo Duro Canyon next Thursday night. Nail is author writer of the production. Miss Reynolds is accompanist and has written several of the songs. Miss Hardin will sing several songs throughout the show.

Troupe Holding Final Fandangle Rehearsals

Final rehearsals for the musical spectacular Fandangle are underway this week in preparation for the three-night show June 11-13.

Robert Nail, author-producer-director of the western show, held the first casting and rehearsal Wednesday night in the Branding Iron Theatre at West Texas State University.

Jearl Nichols, WT senior, has been cast for two singing parts in the production. Nichols will sing with Miss Melinda Hardin of Springfield, Illinois.

Dr. and Mrs. William A. Moore will be narrators of the two-hour show all three nights. Dr. Moore is a speech professor at WT, and Mrs. Moore has worked with productions in the drama department.

Nichols and Miss Hardin will sing "Love Hovers Over You" and "Can A Boy Love A Girl?"

Nichols played Freddy Eynsford-Hill in the recent BIT show "My Fair Lady," which was produced in late May. He is a graduate of Pampa High School and is a music major at WT.

Jearl is a member of the University Choral and has been singing for five years. He studied voice in high school in Pampa.

Miss Harlin, a sophomore student at Southern Methodist University in Dallas, has studied voice for three years. She became interested in music as a child when she appeared in the Fandangle productions in Albany.

"I was part of the children's group in 1955 and 1957 and loved the songs. So I kept singing, and my father thought I should take lessons," Malinda said.

Miss Hardin and her aunt, Miss Alice Reynolds, were in Canyon last weekend practicing for the show.

Miss Reynolds has been with the production since its beginning in the late 1930's. She is accompanist for the musical show and has written several of the show's songs.

"I also handle most of the costumes and do scene designing," she explained.

"The thing I like best about the show is being with all the (See TROUPE, Page 7)

Consult Scientists On Final Draft

BY TROY MARTIN

An architect's drawing of the physical plant of Killgore Research Center was released this week by officials of West Texas State University.

Dr. Emmitt Smith, WT director of program development and research, stressed that the architects' work still is tentative. "There are still many details to be worked out," he declared. "It is in the planning stage and this is not the final concept."

However, he said the drawing of the outside of the building is a good representation of how the structure will appear when completed.

Dr. Smith said construction on the building will not get underway before Jan. 1, 1965.

Architects on the job are Hucker and Parge of Amarillo. This firm of architects designed Buffalo Bowl, the new dormitories most recently constructed on the WT campus and the amphitheater in Palo Duro Canyon.

Dr. Smith pointed out that final plans for the structure will be made only after the architects have conferred with some of the scientists who will use it.

He said about 80 percent of the building's floor space will be devoted to laboratory and some 20 percent to offices for administrators and researchers.

A portion of the building will house a data processing and computer laboratory. In this part of the building will be the 1401 and 1620 IBM computer systems to be used in research.

Dr. Smith said the interior of the structure will be designed for flexibility. Interior walls will be constructed to house modules or rooms about 20 feet by 24 feet. Between two rows of these modules there will be a utility corridor. Gas, water and electricity will come into the building through this corridor which will be designed for easy accessibility to maintenance personnel.

Researchers may sit down with maintenance crews and design a particular module to his own specification, Dr. Smith reported. Some walls will even be portable, he said.

The computer and data processing laboratory will have glass walls so observers can watch the machines at work. The laboratory will be conveniently arranged for use by individual researchers or for conducting training seminars for small groups of students.

Several other facilities will be included in the plans. There will be a few seminar rooms which will accommodate groups of 30 to 50 each. A science library and reading room will be an important feature. Also there will be a small metal shop where equipment will be made to order for researchers.

Dr. Smith said research is contemplated in three major fields.

These include basic life sciences--biology, biochemistry, bio-physics and others--physical sciences--physics, chemistry and mathematics--and earth sciences--primarily geology.

Dr. Smith said basic life sciences and physical sciences are in the plans for the immediate future. He said research in the earth sciences probably will come within the next five years.

38 Umbarger Students To Attend CHS

Thirty-eight Umbarger High School students have been transferred to Canyon High School and will attend classes here next fall, according to Superintendent Huey Laycock.

The move is the result of a meeting of the Umbarger and Canyon school boards held in May. Students involved were in the ninth, tenth, eleventh and twelfth grades.

Placement tests were given transferring youngsters because of requirements involving the change from an unaccredited school to an accredited school. Umbarger is unaccredited.

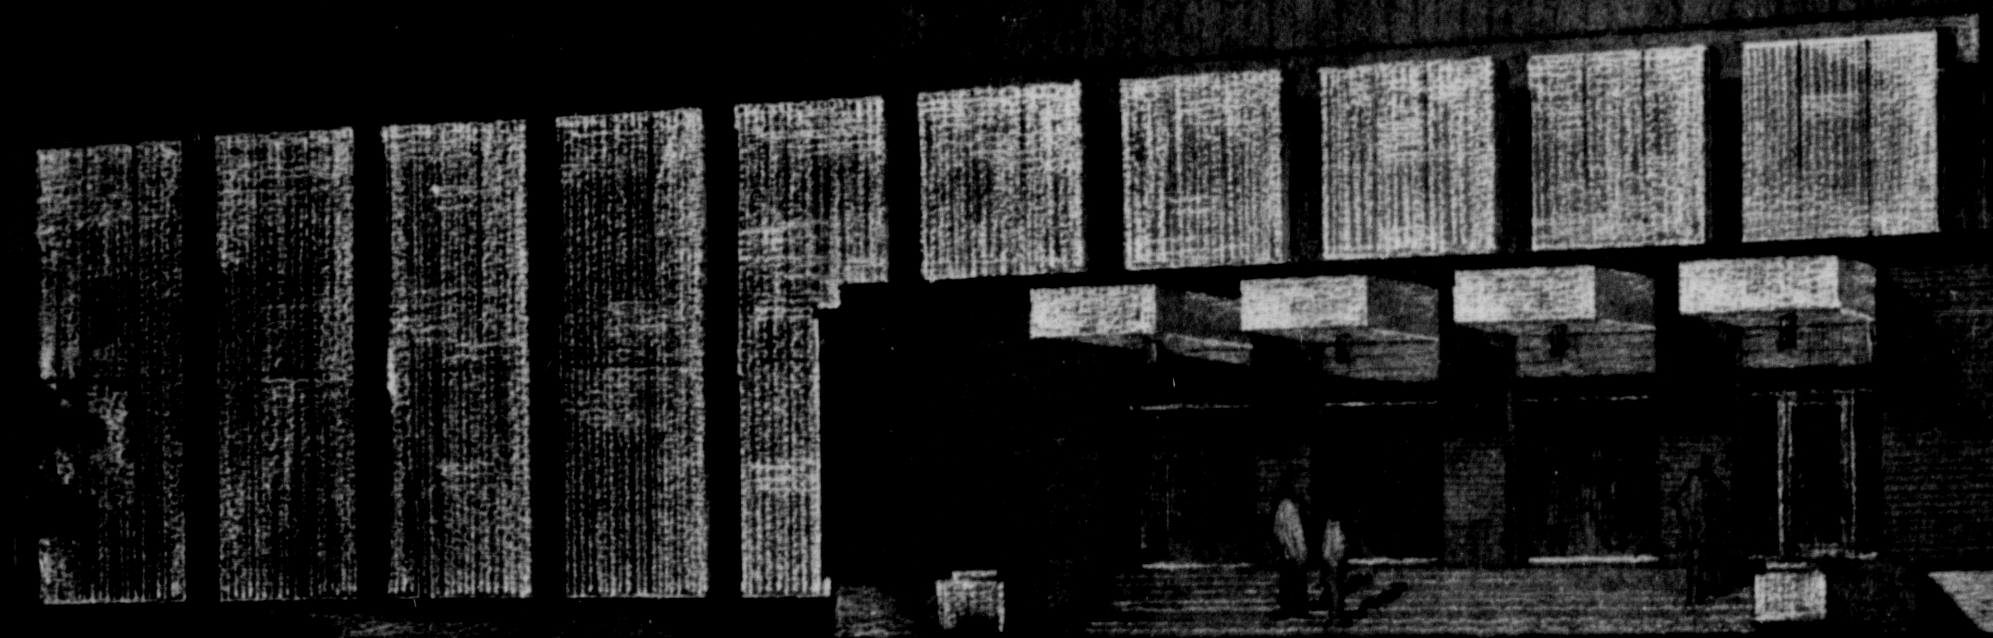

Ed Wieck, Umbarger school board chairman, made the announcement of plans for disbanding Umbarger's high school system during the May meeting. Canyon school board voted to accept the students as transfers.

Members of the Umbarger School Board include Wieck, president; Leo V. Artho, secretary; and Bernard Wilhelm.

Richard Friemel will replace Wilhelm September 1. Judge

MEANDERING WITH MARGO

Mutt Myers' rain gauge was in top working order last week. Mutt reported his "scientific" gauge registered .2 inches of dust and one elm tree seed.

True habits of man come out on a father-son fishing trip. Jokes and tall tales were flying this week when Boy Scouts of Troop 66 and their fathers returned from a four day outing to Possum Kingdom.

One comment which seemed to stick concerned Bill Wilson. Seems as though Bill went on the trip with one shirt and a dollar bill, and when he got back Tuesday he hadn't changed either one.

Canyon News staff got into high gear this week on the 75th Anniversary edition which will be published July 30.

Pictures, stories, just anything that might deal with the early days of Canyon are wanted. Personal stories about people who once lived here, their families and events which shaped the development of Randall County will make the paper a keepsake for old and new timers.

Give us a call or drop by the office if you have any kind of story for the historical paper. And we do want those pictures, with the name and address of the person who brings it in.

Fandangle, that musical spectacular which is going to be produced in the amphitheater next week, is getting into the final swing of rehearsals.

Approximately 200 persons will appear in the show, which will be on stage Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights of next week.

This will be the first major production staged in the amphitheater in Palo Duro Canyon. The show is a benefit for the Panhandle Heritage Foundation and overflowing crowds are expected all three nights.

Tickets are available at the Heritage Office, and if you would like to join the crew contact Mrs. Margaret Harper or Robert Nail at the office.

But mainly, get those tickets and take the family to a wild west show full of entertainment.

Bible Family Has Reunion

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bible have returned from a week's vacation and reunion at Lugert Lake near Altus, Oklahoma.

They spent several days visiting with relatives at Altus and Hollis and attended a reunion for the family Sunday. Also in attendance at the reunion were some 75-80 relatives from the area including the Bible's daughter, Mrs. Sam Call, and family from Kirkland.

FROM THE CANYON RIM

We just returned from Possum Kingdom and four days with Troop 66 on one of its regular early summer outings.

Not having had the opportunity to be a Boy Scout as a lad, the camping trip with the troop was a new experience.

We were out of bed early last Saturday morning. Our gear had been loaded into Harvey Young's boat and car the night before.

We assembled at the home of Oscar Hinger, Scoutmaster, at 5:30 o'clock in the morning.

The trip down was uneventful. We arrived to find that Bill Wilson, Aubrey Crossland, Dr. W. J. Wooten, Phil Swartzell and several others already had pitched tents for us.

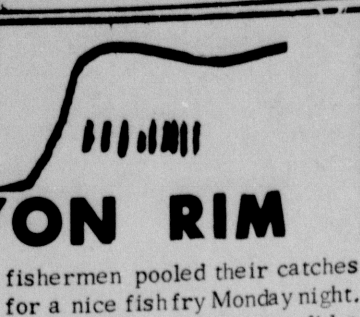

Of course, Jamie Martin and the two Young boys, Norbert and Tom, couldn't wait to get into the water. We learned it had rained early that morning and Bill and Doc Wooten had served 22 people breakfast out of Bill's camper.

We were assigned a tent with Dauber Russell, Ronnie Wooten, Billy Dan Crossland and Andy Moreland. They started things off right by putting a football under our bed while we were out of the tent. It took a while to discover that the inexplicable lump in our cot was the pointed end of a football.

Then next we thought we'd have our cot made up neatly for turning in when we arrived back from fishing at 1 a.m. Well, we fixed it but the boys had it torn up plenty when we came dragging home.

We didn't bother to fix it any more.

We fished with H. R. Fulton, Bob Brotherton, Jamie, Bobby Brotherton and Richard Fulton. We caught a lot of nice fish. All fishermen pooled their catches for a nice fish fry Monday night.

The boys in our boat did a fine job of fishing. Bobby hooked a flathead that was our boat's biggest catch. Richard did well as far as bass were concerned and Jamie certainly landed his share which we think was somewhat of a surprise to him.

He enjoyed the skiing more than he did fishing.

We gorged ourselves on the fine food prepared by Oscar Hinger, slept like a child even when the rain was coming through the tent in our face, and had more fun than we ever were able to pack into four days before.

On top of it all, we learned that Canyon has a bunch of good Scouts, boys and men.

Tulia Editor H. M. Baggerly spoke to the Farmers Union here Friday night. H. M. made some statements on which we had intended to comment this week. However, as we've said before, the Scout trip put us in such a good frame of mind that we do not wish to spoil the mood just yet.

We cannot bring ourselves to go from the sublime to the ridiculous suddenly by commenting this week on the Tulia scribe's talk. We'll get around to it in these paragraphs next week.

Tulia Editor Declares Farm Group Lines Drawn

BY TROY MARTIN

Political battle lines are drawn between two farm organizations of the area, H. M. Baggerly, editor of The Tulia Herald, told a Farmers Union group here Thursday night.

Baggerly spoke for two hours before about 15 persons at the Junior Livestock Building here. "I don't think any Democrat has any business in the Farm Bureau," Baggerly declared, "and I don't think a Republican has any business in the Farmers Union."

Baggerly said the American people are politically illiterate principally because they have been brainwashed by the press and other media of information. He accused news media of associating good terms with Republicans and bad terminology with the Democrats.

The Tulia editor decried apathy and noted that the American people often choose to be ignorant and uninformed.

The one time aide to Admiral Chester Nimitz likened an uninformed electorate to an enlisted man in the service.

"It didn't take any sense to be a seaman or a private," the former naval officer noted. "They just took orders."

Then Baggerly noted that this country has had liberal government since 1932.

H. M. BAGGERLY

He said the Roosevelt administration averted revolution which he declared has been brewing as a result of depression.

"I don't believe we could have stood four more years of Herbert Hoover," he asserted.

He said liberal government has brought affluence to this country.

He noted that liberal government was able to avoid economic collapse after World War II. He said economic collapse always before had followed great wars.

He said there was neither economic collapse nor depression after World War II and credited this largely to manipulation by government.

"Our high standard of living didn't just happen," he said.

He credited the farsightedness of Franklin Roosevelt with having brought about the development of nuclear fission. He said Albert Einstein went to Roosevelt with the story that the Germans were working on atomic energy.

Roosevelt gave the go ahead on our atomic project which he had been told would cost a billion dollars. Baggerly said this required great foresight and courage.

Two notable accomplishments of liberal government in recent years are the facts that it has not lost the cold war nor triggered World War III, Baggerly said.

He said this country is faced with many problems today but declared that these problems will not be solved by men like Barry Goldwater. Solutions will come from men like Roosevelt, John F. Kennedy and Lyndon Johnson, the Tulia editor asserted.

Mrs. N. D. Carter and children are in Dodson this week to visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Noel Burge.

McWilliams Speaks In Plainview

Rev. J. H. McWilliams, pastor of Southside Baptist Church of Canyon, spoke at the Sunday evening services of Boswell Heights Baptist Church in Plainview.

Jeff Smith and N. D. Carter presented the evening services in the absence of Rev. McWilliams.

Carter also spoke Sunday morning at the Calvary Baptist Church in Amarillo.

Johnny Prestridge of the Palo Duro Bowhunters Club won the state championship in the cub division at the state archery meet in Dallas last weekend according to Jack Collier, local member.

Collier was one of nine competing in the meet from the Palo Duro Bowhunters Club. The next competitive meet for the club will be June 7 at the club's archery range, Cliffside, in northwest Amarillo. The 'animal hunt' will be the regular monthly meet and open to public viewing.

An archery fan for three years, Collier is hoping to get an archery club started in Canyon. An archery site would require about 10 acres of land.

"The sport is interesting and a variety for the sportsman," says Collier. "Hunting with the bow and arrow is a lot of sport, and we are planning to hunt deer in Colorado late this summer."

"We know of about a dozen who are interested in the sport here and in the event we are able to secure an archery range here, I'm sure that the sport would increase," stated Collier.

Anyone interested in archery should contact Jack Collier, OL 5-2045.

Palo Duro Raven F Girl, a four-year-old Registered Holstein cow owned by Louis G. Hinders, Canyon, has set a new record in the Total Nutrient Testing (TNT) Program.

The program, launched last year by the Holstein-Friesian Association of America, records not only milk and butterfat nutrients in milk below the creamline, but now solids-not-fat content.

The cow, owned by Hinders produced 16,182 pounds of milk, 609 pounds butterfat and 1560 pounds of solids-not-fat in 321 days.

The average cow's annual output is 7500 pounds of milk containing 275 pounds of butterfat, a spokesman for the national Holstein organization said.

Mary Ann Wheelock and Gary Fletcher were presented with special leadership awards for the 1964 senior class of Canyon High School at graduation practice last Saturday morning.

The two students were selected by high school instructors on a four-fold development to "think tall, stand tall, smile tall, and live tall."

Four birthdays were celebrated last week by the Alfred B. Hamblen family with a pre-birthday picnic at Thompson Park and Zoo in Amarillo on May 23.

Celebrating birthdays were Tracy, who was four on May 27, Kenneth was 9 on May 28, Vicke was 8 on May 29, and Cathy was 6 on May 31.

"We missed out on the May birthdays," says Mrs. Hamblen. Mr. Hamblen celebrated his birthday on April 13 and Mrs. Hamblen's birthday will be September 19.

The picnic party was attended by the Hamblen family and guests for the occasion were Mrs. Roger Schriband children, Gary, Cindy, and Debbie, Denise and Dorinda Hamblen and the grandmother, Mrs. Alfred Hamblen.

Registration deadline for the annual West Texas State University Music Camp is Wednesday, June 10.

Dr. John Green, head of the WT music department, said this week applications must be made by June 10 for the two-week camp, which will be held on the WT campus, July 12-24.

Robert Caddy, director of music at Southern Illinois University and percussion specialist, will lecture and demonstrate for the camp.

Alvis Autrey of San Antonio will direct the music camp choir.

MRS. TRAVIS A. COX

Miss Huff, Cox United In Fort Worth Church Rites

Miss Patricia Jan Huff, granddaughter of the Pat Bahers of Canyon, became the bride of Travis A. Cox in a double ring nuptial ceremony last Saturday morning, May 30, in Richland Hills Church of Christ of Fort Worth.

Mr. and Mrs. Olin D. Huff of 2829 Mimosa Park Drive, Fort Worth are parents of the bride. They are former residents of Canyon. Her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Nathan O. Cox of Pine Bluff, Arkansas.

Officiating at the ceremony was George Tipps, minister of Birdville Church of Christ. Mrs. Jim Long, organist of Richland Hills Baptist Church, played "My Heart Ever Faithful" and "Sheep May Safely Graze" by Bach, "I Love But Thee" and "One Alone" at the organ.

Palm trees and votive lights accented the altar archway which was decorated with bouquets of white gladioli. White gladioli flanked the central archway decorations.

A gown of magnolia taffeta overlaid with silk organza and re-embroidered Alencon lace was worn by the bride as she was escorted and given in marriage by her father. An empire bodice designed with a "Mogen Age" neckline and short sleeves of applique lace accented the dress. Lace appliques were sprinkled on the bodice and repeated on the dome silhouette skirt in garlands and panels from the waist to hemline.

An obi bow bustle, appliqued in lace, accented the back of the gown. The bow complemented the back sweep court train of the floor length skirt. Matching organza and seed pearls held the three tiered bouffant veil of French illusion. The bridal bouquet was arranged in a flowing cascade with satin streamers.

Mrs. Milton E. Ertelt, Jr., sister of the bride, was the matron of honor. Other bridal attendants were Mrs. Robert Adams, sister of the bridegroom, as bridesmaid; Miss Joyce Christopher, bridesmaid; Mary Leslie Degge, cousin of the bride, junior bridesmaid; Miss Deloris Griffin, bridesmaid; and Sara Degge, cousin of the bride, flower girl.

Floor length gowns of turquoise taffeta overlaid with silk organza were worn by the bride's honor attendants. Each carried bouquets of white gladioli framed with tatters of aqua net.

Nathan O. Cox served as best man for his son's wedding ceremony. Others in the groom's party were Milton E. Ertelt, Jr. of Fort Worth, Robert Adams of Dallas, and Robert Speer of Fort Worth as groomsmen. Gordon Hubbard of Dallas, cousin of the groom, was the junior groomsmen and Kyle Degge, cousin of the bride from Lockney, was the ring-bearer.

Ushers for the ceremony were Leslie Huff, Jr. of Austin and Olin Douglas Degge of Lockney, cousins of the bride. Fred Lynch and Walter R. Arnold, III, both of Fort Worth, also ushered at the event.

A reception honoring the couple was held later at the home of the bride's parents. Presiding at the bride's book was Julia McKillip.

An all-white four tiered wedding cake with accents of aqua centered the refreshment table which was laid with a white satin cloth, overlaid with white net. Serving the cake was Mrs. Jack Blair of Tulsa, a great-aunt of the bride. Mrs. Joe Williamson of Houston, also a great-aunt of the bride, presided at the silver punch bowl during the reception hours.

For travel to points in south Texas, the bride was attired in a two piece beige lace dress, lined with beige taffeta. She wore beige accessories and a white orchid corsage.

After June 5, the couple will make their home in Denton where he will be working toward his doctorate of music degree next fall and teaching in the music department at North Texas State University.

A graduate of Birdville High School in Fort Worth, the bride attended Abilene Christian College for three years and will enroll as a senior at North Texas State University this fall. She is a music education major and member of Kappa Delta Pi and the Mu Phi Epsilon.

Her husband received his bachelor of music degree from DePaul University in Chicago, Illinois and did graduate work at Carnegie Institute of Technology in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. He received his Master of Music degree from Southern Methodist University in Dallas and was a member of the music faculty at Abilene Christian College in Abilene for the past year.

WT Students Recite Vows

The engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Tommy Claudene Witten, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Witten of Olton, to Charlie T. Burrus is being announced by the bride-elect's parents.

Parents of the prospective bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Paul Burrus.

Nuptial vows are planned for July 10 at 7:30 p.m. in the First Baptist Church of Olton with Rev. Bob White, pastor of Northside Falls, as officiating minister.

Graduates of Olton High School, the couple are both students at West Texas State University in Canyon. She formerly attended Baylor University at Waco.

Mrs. Norman Brantley spent the Memorial Day weekend in Muleshoe visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Sanders, and also visited with her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Brantley.

News, Features For The Women

Pamela Richard Weds W. L. Riggins

Rev. Charles Hastings, chapel director, performed the nuptial ceremony. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Lee Riggins of White Deer.

The bride was attired in a yellow silk suit and carried a white Bible topped with a white bridal bouquet and streamers of white satin ribbon. She complemented the ensemble with a white hat featuring a short illusion veil and white accessories.

Sue Frank of Canyon was the bride's honor attendant and wore a beige silk sheath dress people. They are all so different, but we all work together well and have so much fun. "They come from all sorts of backgrounds, and it is fun and interesting to see how all these different kinds of people become a close-knit unit. They are so congenial.

"It's fun to watch the people, who do not have any theatrical background, develop into a real troupe," she continued. Miss Reynolds pointed out that in Albany the show, which is produced every few years, is done with volunteer work from the community.

"When the show was first produced, we had women make the dresses by hand. Naturally some of them are wearing out but they were well-made so we are not having to replace them all at the same time," she said. "We are used to having to do all the work ourselves, from post hole digging to making clothes. Here everyone has been so nice and is doing so much for us," Miss Reynolds commented.

Nail recalled the past shows which have been produced in Albany.

"People grow up in the parts. They begin appearing in the show as children, and each time it is produced again they appear in a different part. Soon they learn all the parts and can take over if someone can't make it," she said.

Nail said approximately 30 Canyon high school youngsters will appear in the show along with some 150 adults from over the Panhandle.

A group of about 65 persons will come from Albany to appear in the show. Part of the troupe from Albany is a permanent group which travels around the state presenting parts of the show to various organizations.

Wednesday, June 10, has been set as dress rehearsal for the musical spectacular. The first performance will be Thursday night, June 11 in the amphitheater in Palo Duro Canyon.

Reservations for the show are on sale now at the Panhandle Heritage Foundation Office. Block reservations may be made by organizations.

The show will be approximately two hours in length, including an intermission.

Wayland Angel is county school superintendent. Ken C. Clover, representative of the Texas Education Agency in Austin, visited in Umbarger earlier to examine possible improvements in the Umbarger system. He voiced approval of the first six grades.

Improvements are now being studied for Umbarger by the school board. One new teacher has been hired and five or six other teachers will be hired, a spokesman for the board said. The number of teachers to be added will depend on the Average Daily Attendance ratings.

Also being studied at this time are plans to "try to better the library" and to bring teaching aids up to standard.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Henderson of Masterson, Texas visited recently with his brother, T. W. Henderson, and family in Canyon.

Library Building Fund Is Started

A building fund savings account has been opened for the Randall City-County Library according to an announcement made Tuesday at the official library board meeting.

Levi Cole has been appointed financial advisor for the building committee. The building fund was opened with a $100 donation from the Canyon Study Club.

An additional $800 which the library received in the division of 'community center funds' will be added to the account after June 30 when it draws semi-annual interest.

The library board voted to renew subscriptions to 25 periodical magazines for the library and it was announced that 10-20 new books for adult and juvenile readers are purchased by the library each month.

"It's Like This, Cat" by Emily Neville is a new selection for the John Newberry Medal Books. The selection of top books for youth includes those from 1922, when the medal was started.

The Caldecott Medal Book, started in 1938, for 1964 "Where The Wild Things Are" by Sendak is a new arrival at the library.

Other recent additions for the adult reader include "In Range and pasture grasses were aided by the rains for an ease to the critical cattle situation.

Irrigation wells in the county, which have been in operation for some 60-90 days, were not shut-down due to the small amount of rain.

Measamer stated that the driest year on record here was in 1956 when there was only 10.21 inches of precipitation measured.

The rainfall and cool weather will help fill out the grain that has already headed and will allow it to weigh more, according to reports received this week. Moisture will help cut the chances of dry wind shattering the grain.

Dryland farms received very little benefit if any from the moisture. It will be an aid to the late maturing wheat on dryland and irrigated farms. Additional rain is needed for the assurance of a stand on grain sorghum that has been planted.

Commission Views Plans Of Elevator

Randall County Commissioners Court decided Monday afternoon to advertise for bids for a courthouse elevator.

Proposed plans for the proposed elevator were shown to the court by Russell A. Megert of Amarillo.

In other action, Monday, the court accepted a petition from Wayne Kelso for a local airport.

Kelso told commissioners the petition was being resubmitted with 350 new names.

The original petition had been checked by the county and 220 named had been ruled as invalid.

Kelso also submitted plans for an airport. He told commissioners the plans called for one section of land which would include buildings and runways.

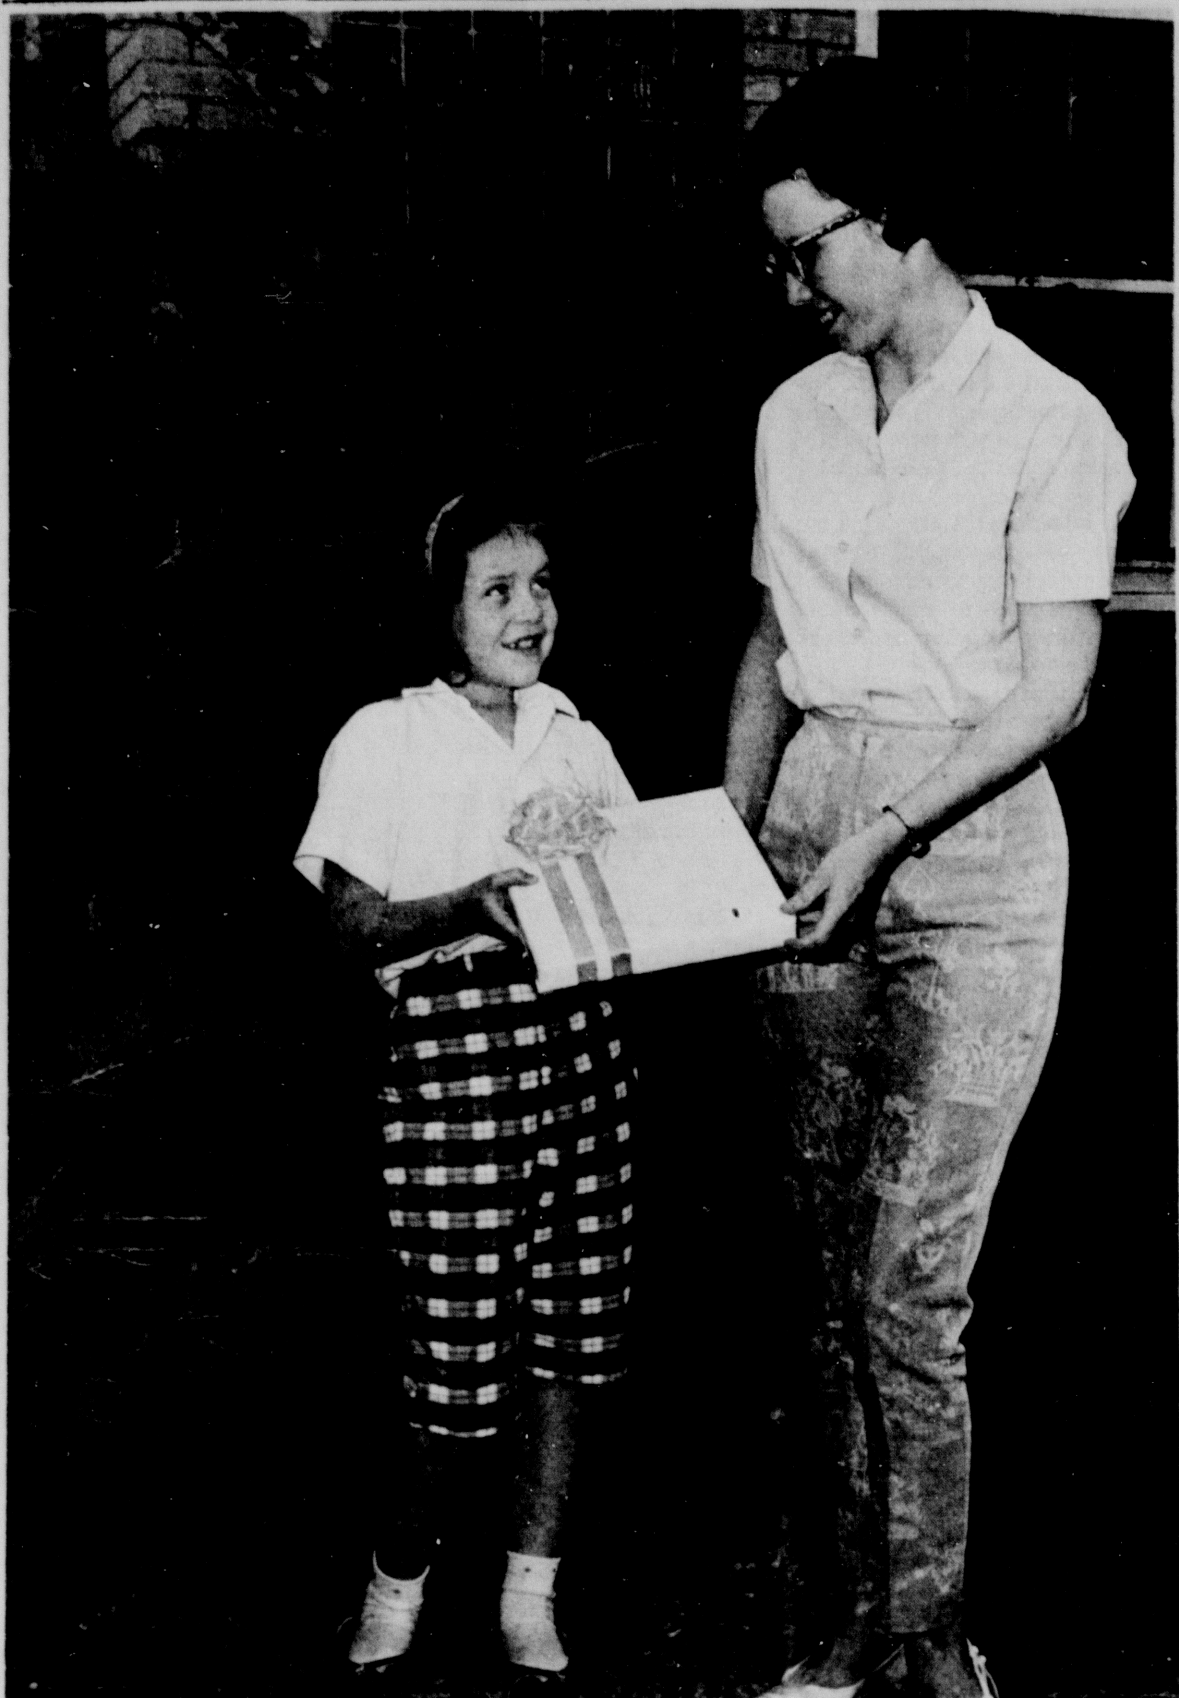

Court accepted a check from the Texas Highway Department for $977.50 as reimbursement for 1.53 acres of land for Highways 60 and 87 between Amarillo and Canyon.

Commissioners also decided to pay $510 to Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo for the C. B. "Brownie" Cable family.

Mr. Cable died in April from a gunshot wound. He is survived by his wife and five children.

SEA Elementary Head Has Workshop Here

Miss Ruby Bennet, head of the elementary department of the State Education Agency, is directing the Elementary Teachers' Workshop being held in the Rex Reeves Elementary School this week.

Mrs. Bennet, who is in charge of elementary school accreditation in Texas, opened the workshop Monday, June 1. It will continue through Saturday.

Thirty-two teachers are enrolled in the workshop, which is open to Canyon teachers only. The workshop is designed for the study of methods of enriching the curriculum.

"Steps for the development of a better program are outlined," Miss Bennet states. "The educational objective must be set up and kept clearly in mind. The aid to instruction must be carefully selected for the purpose which it is to be used, the procedure specifically worked out with the objective in mind."

"Evaluative criteria must be developed and applied. The next steps are planning (if needed), understanding, re-teaching and additional drill."

Mrs. Bennet, explaining the charts and various materials on display in the workshop, said teaching aids provide "motivation, the individualizing of instruction and use of skills" for elementary children.

"There are teaching aids here for every area of the curriculum," she said. Teachers are working with these aids, including numerous picture and word charts in reading, arithmetic, geography, map-reading, science.

Experiments in paper mosaics, torn paper pictures, block printing with corrugated cardboard and a cardboard frieze allow children to learn art techniques.

"Reading is the hardest mental task that children have to face," Miss Bennet continually stresses. The State Education Agency has formed a reading club to encourage children to do outside reading. Records are kept and certificates given

Hughes Presents Pack 97 Program

Jack Hughes, curator of paleontology at the Panhandle-Plains Historical Museum, was guest speaker at the final pack meeting program for Pack 97 Cub Scouts last Thursday evening.

Hughes spoke on "Indian Customs and Flint Mines" during the program. He discussed the flint mines near Canadian River Dam and showed chips and chunks of flint which had come from the series of 500 mines that were used by the Indians of the plains.

The Indian theme was carried out throughout the program with Cub Scouts of all dens performing rain dances in original costumes which they had made. Den 3 was named honor den for the most original display of Indians. Their exhibit was a miniature Indian settlement complete with teepees, trees, and villagers.

Den 6 received the Cubby Award for having the largest majority of parents at the meeting. It was the sixth time that Mrs. Roy Cates' den had taken the honor in succession.

Harold Prichard, cub master, presented the awards to outstanding boys during the program which was held in the First Baptist Church fellowship hall.

Doyle Bryan Home For Graduation

Doyle Bryan was a highlight at the Happy High School graduation ceremonies Friday night.

Doyle, HHS senior, flew home from Houston just hours before the annual exercises.

Four weeks ago Doyle and his mother traveled to Houston, where the high school football star began treatments for a tumor on his left leg.

Friends and classmates in Happy decided Doyle should attend his graduation ceremony, and the small community pooled resources to finance the trip. Extra money raised was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Lester Bryan, parents of Doyle, to use as they find necessary.

Friday night was a double celebration for Doyle and the 16 other Happy High School graduates. They were all together to complete the course which they began 12 years before.

Doyle returned to Houston Monday to undergo more treatment. He will remain at M.D. Anderson Hospital as an outpatient for five more weeks.

Mrs. Bosley has served with the local library since December 1949 and plans to keep in touch with the library program which has undergone numerous changes since she first became the assistant librarian.

Mrs. Bosley's request for retirement was submitted in January and was due to become effective on March 30, however when she learned that her replacement would not be available at that time she changed her retirement plans to include two additional months service at the library.

Her future plans include gardening, visiting with friends and relatives. The Bosleys have three children, two sons and a daughter.

Kenneth Bosley resides in Amarillo, Ray Bosley and family live in Hereford. Both are employed with Southwestern Bell Telephone Company. The Bosley's daughter, Cecelia, and her family live in DeBary, Florida, where her husband, a career Navy man, is presently stationed.

Mrs. Johnny Raymond Picks Two Recipes As Favorites

A Mexican Meat Dish and Buttermilk Candy recipes are being shared with our readers this week by Mrs. Johnny Raymond, 902 7th Avenue.

Graduated from Hereford High School, the former Miss Johnnie Burkett is the oldest child of the J. D. Burkett of Canyon.

After high school graduation Miss Burkett attended West Texas State University for one year before returning to Hereford where she accepted a secretarial position with the First Baptist Church.

"Dad saw the expense was going to soar by the time he had allowed each of us a college education," comments Mrs. Raymond. "So he transferred to Canyon with the Soil Conservation Service."

Her father, J. D. Burkett, has been associated with the Soil Conservation Service in Canyon for eight years. The other Burkett children, Lynda, Wilma and Jim, are all graduates of West Texas State University.

Mrs. Raymond received the bachelor and master of education degrees at WTSU. She has taught school in the Amarillo Public School system for four years.

Her sisters, Lynda and Wilma, completed high school at Canyon High School. Linda, now Mrs. Tom Lindsey, lives in Borger and Wilma is teaching school in Amarillo. Their brother, Jim, and his family are in Columbus, Georgia where he is a first lieutenant with the Army.

In April of 1960, Miss Burkett and Johnny Raymond were married at Joseph A. Hill Chapel on the WTSU campus. Her husband is the son of Mrs. T. A. Dooley and C. B. Raymond, both of Sunray.

Mr. Raymond attended McMurry College in Abilene before transferring to West Texas State University where he earned the bachelor and master of education degrees. He is a teacher in the Amarillo public school system.

"Johnny has been busy this spring with the yard we are just getting started, and also likes to work on bookshelves," commented Mrs. Raymond.

The couple attends the First Baptist Church of Canyon and the Adult I Sunday School Class. They have one child, Stephanie Lee, a four-month-old daughter.

"We gave our dalmation pup to the Canyon Fire Department after the baby was born, because it howled all time and kept her awake," says Mrs. Raymond.

"This is my first year to really be a housewife," commented Mrs. Raymond. Aside from her active homelife, Mrs. Raymond is a member of the Canyon Study Club and serves as the club's representative on the Randall City-County Library board. She is serving as co-chairman for the summer youth reading program at the library.

Her recipes follow:

Boy Rides Scooter From Montana Home

"It was a long motor scooter ride," says Robert Canada who arrived in Canyon last Wednesday night after traveling by scooter from his home in Chinook, Montana.

Robert rode 1400 miles in four days by motor scooter to attend Canyon High School graduation. His trip to Texas was his high school graduation present; he graduated May 20 from Chinook High School.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Canada, Robert was born and reared in Canyon and attended public schools here until his family moved to Montana in October, 1963.

"I wanted to see the graduation exercises for the Canyon High School class," commented Robert. "My scooter was the only way I could get here, and mother let me come because she knew it was the only way."

"It was a long ride, but very thrilling for Robert," says his grandmother, Mrs. R. D. Oldham. "He was a sight when he got here," says his grandmother, Canada traveled with his clothes rolled in a bundle on the back fender of the scooter.

He left Sunday morning, May 24, at 5 a.m. from his home in Montana and traveled to Canyon by way of Great Falls, Montana; Cheyenne, Wyoming; Denver and Pueblo, Colorado.

"I could drive only 40 mph, so that way I got to see a lot of the country," Robert laughed, when asked if he made good time while driving. "The first day was pretty good, warm and cloudy; on the second day it rained and I had a little motor trouble and it rained again Wednesday between Pueblo and Lamar."

"I had to push the scooter up part of the Colorado mountains, but it wasn't any major trouble," I took the shortest route
